

All White Jet Night Fighter in S.A.

CAUSING MANY FLYING SAUCER REPORTS

Adelaide, Feb. 19. — An all-white jet night fighter, one of the Royal Air Force's top performance weapons, is stationed in South Australia. The machine has caused many flying saucer reports.

It is an Armstrong-Whitworth NF11 Meteor, based at the Mallala R.A.A.F. station and is making experimental night flights connected with work at the Woomera rocket range.
