

Latest Flying Saucer

Melbourne: A white, balloon-like object flying "at tremendous speed" and a red revolving light are the latest things seen in Melbourne skies.

The balloon was seen late yesterday at East Preston by Graham Purnell (12).

Fifteen minutes later the red light was seen over Richmond by Mrs. E. Riley, of Richmond, her daughter, Carol (11), and a playmate.
