

Flying Saucer

Cricket Trophy-winners

Seen

It was spotted by footballers from Ross St. youngsters at 8.50 p.m. last Saturday night.

"Look! Look!" called out Douglas Whale, aged 16 years, as he pointed to a big round red spinning object in the sky.

Douglas, a reliable type of lad, who is employed by Cr. Smith, told his employer that the saucer was round flat on the bottom and top was spinning and moving fast, but made no noise.

His brother, Noel, and Jimmy and Elsie Tyrell also saw the strange object and disappeared behind the trees. They rushed round the back and it was travelling so fast that it was gone.

It disappeared in the direction of the hills.
