

'Flying Saucer' man friendly

OSLO, Tuesday: Police in north and central Norway are setting off today in search of any trace of a "flying saucer" from which two young women reported seeing a "dork, long-haired, foreign-looking man" emerge.

They said they saw the man while they were picking berries. They described him as appearing friendly and anxious to talk, but he was unable to understand English, French, or German.

After the man vainly tried to explain himself with words, gestures, and drawings, he climbed into the "saucer," which rose straight into the air and disappeared.

They said the saucer was about 16 ft. in diameter and looked like two saucers put together.

It started with a slight humming sound like a bee and rose at great speed.

The man wore a kind of khaki overall without buttons, but possibly with a belt.

When police questioned the women separately, both told similar stories with only minor divergencies.—AAP.
