SAUCER Heard about the Willung resident who saw a flying saucer last week. It was the real thing, orange vapor trail, crimson lighting and the green tinge overhead. That is not all. A woman in Wangaratta saw it on the same night and if you take a line from Willung on take a line from Willung on the map directly north, you are not far off Wangaratta. You can see by this that the jesting that has been directed at Mrs. ——— by fellow residents down at Willung might be out of place anyway.

GRATITUDE Heard about the fellow who was really distressed when a dog was injured. He was not the one who hit the dog but he pulled his rug out of the car and made the animal comfortable before driving for aid. You can imagine what he said when he and the vet. arrived back at the scene. The dog was still there in its injured condition but the rug had disappeared.

HOLIDAYS For the next few days there will be a surplus of children about Sale and district. It is the annual holiday which used to be known as show holiday. For some reason or other either the show date or the

... the show date of the holiday was changed to miss the show, and now it is only where permission is given that children are able to compete at the Royal. There are still a large number of parents who would like to have the holiday and take their children along to the show at the same time.

ELECTION The elections over the past few days have not been without their humorous moments. One of these was at a polling booth in the Rosedale riding on Thursday. After receiving his vote cards and a circular extolling the qualities of the candidates concerned, the rate payer entered the poll, took a look at the nomination paper and remarked to the officer on duty "I see three here, but where is the Rating Reform League candidate, Mr. Hutchinson?" Officer explained that Mr. Tanner and Mr. Hutchinson were only opponents through correspondence not through the council poll
