

Flying Saucer Hoax

PARIS, October 6.—A retired miner built many of the hundreds of "flying saucers" which were reported in the sky near Lisie, North France, recently, police said yesterday.

Just for a joke the miner made his "saucers" out of strong grey paper on the fire balloon principle. After paraffin soaked rags had been lit, warm air lifted the saucers and off they went into the wind displaying orange and yellow lights.