

Talked to the "Pilot"

FLYING SAUCER PARKED ON FRENCH ROAD

Paris, Oct. 18.—Two French motor cyclists swore in Toulon yesterday that they had talked to the "pilot" of a flying saucer parked in the middle of the Hyeres-Toulon road on Thursday night.

The men, Mario Rapellini and Pierre Ottoviani, told the police that they found the flying saucer was a circular object with two legs resting on the ground.

It had a bulge on the top and two earlike openings at the side.

As they gingerly approached they said a medium sized man "dressed in grey overalls of some strange material stepped out."

The following conversation took place in French:—

Rapellini: Are you Martian?

Stranger: No, I'm French.

Where am I?

They told the "pilot" where he was.

He re-entered his machine through a "triangular" opening. A stream of vapour issued from the saucer.

It rose slowly vertically into the air as its motor roared up. It then streaked off at a

It then streaked off at a great speed leaving an orange glow in its wake.
