In The Air

Much new flying saucer activity is reported from points scattered throughout the world. A Scotsman says he has met a Martian who alighted from a flying saucer near the Loch Ness monster country. Two French motor cyclists spoke to the occupant of another flying saucer, but he said he was a Frenchman. Port Pirie at the week-end had its own visitor. There is also much else in the air at the moment.