

AFRICANS IN PANIC OVER "FLYING SAUCER"

SHABANI (Southern Rhodesia).—A panic among Africans working on night shift at a Shabani gold mine was believed to have been due to a "flying saucer."

The Africans, who dropped their tools and ran in terror to the engine room, told the manager: "God has come."

They all said they had seen an "illuminated object" hovering over the mine and behaving strangely.