

5 men see 'saucer'

Five men — four Security patrolmen and a milkman— claimed yesterday that they had seen a strange bright object streaking across the sky in the early hours of the morning.

Each of the men said they had always scoffed at "flying saucer" stories.

"But we're convinced now that there's something in them," said two watchmen who watched the phenomenon together.

Mr. J. B. Hehir, a Commonwealth Security patrolman, said:

"It had a silver, yellow and reddish colored tail. It streaked across the sky at great speed.

"It seemed to come from the direction of Sunshine, and disappeared towards the Dandenongs at a height of about 1,000ft."
