

They watch for saucers

AS a member of the WA group of Flying Saucer Research, I would like to quote from the New Zealand club journal: "Membership is steadily growing and despite the lack of New Zealand Press interest, serious interest in flying saucers and unidentified flying objects is being shown by the public and increasing daily. In the same issue we read that the Duke of Edinburgh has asked the Air Ministry for all details.—Spaceman, Perth.