

"FLYING SAUCER" CRASHES

NEW DELHI, Friday.—A "flying saucer" sighted over Afghanistan fell to the ground and was found to be made of nylon and to have held some sort of gas, the Afghan Embassy announced yesterday. It did not have a motor or any mechanical device and seemed to have fallen when gas leaked from the nylon, the announcement said.