

SHAPE OVER PARIS

PARIS, Sunday: An unidentified object twice as big as a normal airliner hovered over Paris last night radar men at Orly airport reported today.

They said the object showed up on their radar screens at 10 p.m., and they estimated it moved at about 1,700 m.p.h., between hovering at various points over the capital.

Red light

An Air France pilot heading for London from Paris reported that he saw a red light winking above his plane after being warned by the after being warned by the Only sky control tower of an unidentified object.

He was flying at 5,000ft., and the light was several hundred feet above his plane. He said he changed course to avoid it, and it disappeared in the clouds.

A. A. P. - Reuter's.