

AMERICA NEARS THE FLYING SAUCER

Ready to undergo extensive tests at Edwards Air Force Base, California, is a United States Navy WV-2 Tuper Constellation, specially fitted with a giant saucer-like dome. Measuring more than 30 ft. in diameter, the dome, a new type of radome containing radar antennae, is in an experimental stage.