

Mystery Object Alarms Airlines Pilot

SAN JUAN (Puerto Rico), Sunday (A.A.P.).— A fiery object hurtled toward an American commercial airliner high over the Atlantic yesterday, and forced the pilot to take evasive action.

The pilot, Captain Van Winkle, described the mysterious missile as a "burning, greenishwhite, round object, unrecognisable, but definitely not a meteor."

The aircraft, a Pan-American Airways plane was on a flight from New York to San Juan,
