

In the Higher Altitudes

Two R.A.A.F. Officers from Home Command, Wing Commander Abacair and Squadron Leader Sinclair, announced to the organisers of the Penrith High School fete just some of the things which would be comprised in the R.A.A.F. display.

There would be some unidentified objects.

Films.

A pilot dressed in flying gear, and his ejector-seat.

Teletypes, on which people may send messages.

Models of ships and aeroplanes.

Safety equipment, dinghies and parachutes.

Guns and ammunition, 3-inch rockets.

A gun which is motivated.

A magneto test bench.

This is the R.A.A.F. display . . . and for the young people of all ages, here is imagination, and a tour into scientific operation.
