

Flying objects mystery

LISBON, Monday
(AAP-Reuter). — Mysterious unidentified flying objects were reported over Portugal during the weekend adding to a rash of similar reports from Latin American countries during the past week.

The Portuguese news agency ANI reported yesterday that electromagnetic clocks stopped at the airport at Santa Maria Island, in the Azores, on Friday when a white, cylinder-shaped object flew overhead.