

'Most authentic yet'

LONDON, Monday (AAP-Reuter). — Flying saucer enthusiasts here today investigated what they say is the most authentic sighting on record.

Aviation historian, Mr Charles Gibbs-Smith, said a large star-like object had been photographed streaking horizontally across the skyline in Ireland.

"The picture is not a fake," he said, but scientists at Britain's Unidentified Flying Objects Research Association headquarters are doubtful.