

Fog stops UFO hunt

LONDON, Monday (AAP). — Fog and rain yesterday defeated the Royal Air Force mission to photograph an unidentified flying object over the town of Okehampton in Devon.

A silver and pink unidentified flying object has been sighted almost daily over the Devon market town.

A RAF spokesman said that after studying many reports that had come in, the Air Force was satisfied that it was something worth investigating.