

Socially Yours

by Debby

Pictured above are Jennifer Kalowski and Les Rosen, who recently announced their engagement. Jennifer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Kalowski of Dover Heights and Les the son of Mr. B. Rosen of Bondi. A reception for the couple was held at the Maccabean Hall where relatives and friends honoured Jennifer and Les by inscribing them in the Golden Book in Jerusalem.

—JNF photo by David Huban

* * *

Mr. Michael Hervey, well-known author, will be guest speaker at the NCJW monthly luncheon to be held at Council House on Wednesday, February 18. Mr. Hervey will give a talk on the theme of his latest book, "Unidentified Flying Objects".

identified Flying Objects".

* * *

Ezra will hold the first group meeting of the year in the Vaucluse home of Mrs. L. Masnick on February 3. Main topic for discussion will be details of the morning tea for hostesses on February 18. Venue will be the Dover Heights home of Mrs. S. Simpson where members will plan their Mother's Day luncheon.

* * *

Newcastle Council of Jewish Women resume their activities after the holiday break with a meeting on Wednesday in the Hamilton South home of Miss R. Samuels. Visitors to the city are welcome to attend.

* * *

Young and not so young women who are living in the Western Suburbs and are interested in belonging to a friendly social group are invited to join the National Coun-vited to join the National Council of Jewish Women's Kingsgrove-Earlwood Group. This group is active in all kinds of social and welfare work and chairman Mrs. Paul Perkal will be only too happy to welcome new members.