

---

---

COLUMN SEVER

---

---

There's talk in the village that it would be a good idea to hold a Fancy Dress Ball — parties to come in the costumes of sets — you know, the Ned Kelly Gang, the Seven Little Dwarves, or something like this.

There's also discussion as to where in Sawtell such a Ball could be held — one suggestion has been the Reserve Hall.

Those toying with the idea have asked us to leave the thought with you, the people of Sawtell, Bonville and Boambee, or wherever you may be who read this paper. They would like to have your reactions and your com-reactions and your comments — would you participate, would you enjoy such a night, would you be prepared to help — what could you suggest that would help the occasion go with a swing? Please let us have your words.

x x x

Sawtell Road still is a road without a name. Not only does no-one know the name of the road on which he is travelling, neither does he know whether he is in Sawtell, Boambee or Timbuctu.

We hope our illustrious Council notice this and do something about it.

x x x

Four Kempsey teenagers claim they saw an unidentified flying object land in a paddock in a property between Gladstone and Kinchela.

They said the object, which was helmet shaped and very bright, appeared to hover a few feet from the ground.

the ground.

Investigations did not reveal any trace of the mysterious visit. Are those kids having us on?

●

C.P. WANTS SUNDAY TRADING

A special committee of the Country Party has recommended that hotels be open between 12 noon and 8 p.m. on Sunday in New South Wales. A spokesman said the proposal would allow members of the public who preferred to drink where there were no poker machines, to do so.