

15 minutes or 5 days for Corporal Valdes

ARICA, Chile, Wednesday (AAP). — A Chilean Army corporal was kidnapped for 15 minutes by a flying saucer near the Bolivian frontier last month, it was reported in Arica yesterday, according to Agence France-Presse

A patrol led by Corporal Armando Valdes was on routine duty near Putre, north-east of Santiago, on April 25, when they saw an intensely bright light about 500 metres away, press reports said.

The corporal went to investigate and disappeared a few minutes before the object vanished.

Fifteen minutes later the corporal appeared amid his men, gaped "muchachos" and collapsed unconscious. He had several days growth of beard and his expression indicated he had seen something incredible or incomprehensible.

When he came round a few moments later he remembered nothing but it was noticed that while his watch had advanced only 15 minutes the date showed April 30 — five days later.

Military authorities at Arica, near the Peruvian frontier, where near the Peruvian frontier, where the corporal was transferred, have refused to confirm or deny the reports

The Press said they had reconstructed the occurrence by questioning people who were there.
