

Test your knowledge

TEST your knowledge of the news with these questions based on reports in The Canberra Times in the past week.

- 1 What substance have ANU scientists learnt to synthesise?
- 2 Who was the pilot of the F111 that crashed into the sea off New Zealand?
- 3 Who is the new president of the ANU Students Association?
- 4 What sentence was imposed in a Toronto court on Rolling Stones guitarist Keith Richards for possessing heroin?
- 5 Mrs Helen Attwooll came from England to Australia for the birth of her newest grandchild. Why did she not see the baby?
- 6 What ugly little aeroplane was demonstrated in Canberra?
- 7 What proportion of Australians have a chronic illness or impairment, according to the Statistics Bureau?
- 8 Who is the President of West Germany?
- 9 Who is the new Leader of the NSW Opposition?
- 10 Which world airline is ranked the safest and which the the safest and which the riskiest by the magazine Flight International?

11 What profit did Telecom make in 1977-78?

12 What is the latest building proposed for development of the Jolimont site?

13 Why was Fiona Woolcock, 20 months, of Kaleen, in the news?

14 From what car is the new Holden Commodore derived?

15 Who was the aircraft pilot who reported an unidentified flying object before disappearing?

Answers tomorrow.