

Lords debate

The House of Lords has rejected moves for a major inquiry into unidentified flying objects in Britain. — Page 6.

Wheat deal

The Australian Wheat Board announces it has negotiated the sale of 2.5 million tonnes of wheat to China. — Page 21.

---

Book Pages

Rudyard Kipling is seen by Maurice Dunlevy in Writers World as a man who loved the national virtues of Britain, but a man who because of his swank and swagger made the nation's virtues stink in the nostrils of youth. The Book Pages. — Pages 16, 17.

The Saturday Page

Myrna was loud and brassy, the local tart, and Vee, plain and pregnant, was horrified when Myrna offered to make her a snappy outfit to improve her appeal. Read 'Rich — but not gaudy', by Maureen Pople. There is also a tale of Kampala in the is also a tale of Kampala in the 1950s: 'The reference', by Valerie

Helps. — The Saturday Page. —
Page 15.