

10 years ago

● Strange flying objects seen high over Granite Island last Sunday, Father's Day, weren't exactly unidentified – they were hundreds of kites taking part in a kite flying extravaganza which attracted some 5,000 people despite cold and windy conditions the day before and particularly rainy weather in Adelaide on the day itself. Victor Harbor, however, turned on a pleasant day.