ADVERTISING GENERAL INFORMATION

MINIMUM SIZE 2 LINES

It is the responsibility of the advertiser to notify the publishers of any error on the first day of publication. The publishers are not responsible for recurring errors. No allowance will be made for errors unless attention is drawn to them on the day of publication: Monday to Friday 8am to 4.30pm; Saturday 8am to noon; Sunday 3pm to 8pm. The degree of error will determine the level of allowance.

All settings and classifications must adhere to the publishers' rules. Advertisers and agents are advised to read carefully the Advertising Rate Card, which is available on request, prior to placing advertisements or series of advertisements.

The Sex Discrimination Act, 1984 proscribes discrimination on the grounds of sex, marital status and pregnancy in employment, accommodation, provision of goods, facilities and services, disposal of lands, activities of clubs, administration of Commonwealth laws and programs and application forms.

In regard to employment, the Act makes it unlawful to discriminate against employees, applicants for jobs, contract workers or people who work on commission basis. Sections of the Act make it an offence if a person or body corporate is involved in the publication of an corporate is involved in the publication of an advertisement which indicates an intention to contravene the Act.

The publishers reserve the right to alter advertisement copy so as not to contravene the Act.
