

Alien Changed My Doggy

Saturday, WA/SA border. Reports of UFO sightings have been flooding into all media offices around the country this week. Most have centered on the small town of Eucla on the Nullabour Plain. All had been dismissed as tall stories until yesterday when the Smart family's pet dog disappeared in a cloud of Blue-Green smoke. Minutes later, the cloud reappeared and deposited a small white rabbit. The rabbit was found by Ally Smart (10) who also discovered that the rabbit answered to Bonny, the name of the dog. The Smart family are still in a state of deep distress following the surprise transfiguration of their beloved pet. "It's not that we don't like rabbits or anything. In fact Bugs Bunny has always been my favourite cartoon character." stated Mrs Evaline Smart, an attractive 35 year old stockhand, in a moving interview last night. "It's just that, well Bonny has been with us, as a dog, for the past 7 years and we are all rather attached to her, she's like a rather attached to her, she's like a part of the family. And what are we going to do with the 5 kilo bag of Meaty Bites we still have at home." According to reliable sources, scientists from the CSIRO and the military are on their way but until they arrive, Ally has her pet dog/ rabbit back again.

AAP

Ally and Bonny. Teaching an old dog new tricks.

The Spew Age - Special Issue, Foundation Day 1991