

Truly a UFO experience

WHILE ON manoeuvres over a mysterious European mountain, NATO pilots Alex and Philip encounter an inexplicable blinding white light.

Alex escapes but Philip crashes his F104 into the mountain, though no trace of his body can be found.

An inquiry, sceptical about his ball of light theory and suspecting incompetence, suspends Alex.

This allows him time to research his own theory that UFOs are involved.

His investigations introduce him to Isabella (Kensit), the UFO researcher with whom he becomes romantically involved.

romantically involved.

Lots of theories, blinding white lights, on-ground action and military jets fizzing about the skies at odd angles but not a lot else in this Italian production.

Unfortunately, for me it conjured up a completely new meaning for UFO — Unbelievably Forgettable Outcome.
