

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 9:

A HONDA 650cc generator worth $400 was stolen from Greenpatch Farm.

A man was arrested in St Andrews Drive and charged with larceny and being unlawfully on a premises after clothes were stolen from a clothes line in the area.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 10:

NO serious incidents were reported to Port Lincoln police on Friday.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 11:

POLICE received reports on Saturday of a man exposing himself to children in Tasman Terrace on Saturday.

The man is described as being in his late 40s to early 50s.

A road train and a car collided at Lebrun Street on Saturday.

The female driver of the car was cut from her vehicle using the jaws of life and taken to Port Lincoln Hospital with minor injuries.

A blue Yamaha motorcycle with the registration number TGD-846 was stolen from 9 Cronin Avenue on Saturday.

A man was arrested for breaking and entering, larceny and resisting arrest after police apprehended him inside a classroom at the Kirton Point Primary School.

Police received reports of a UFO

PORT LINCOLN PRIMARY SCHOOL.

Police received reports of a UFO on Saturday night.

The green light was sighted from Winter Hill falling towards Lincoln National Park.

The light is thought to have been a shooting star.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 12:

A MAN was reported for three counts of larceny after he stole lunches from the Port Lincoln Hospital.

Three windows were smashed at a Verran Terrace property.

There was a break-in with intent at a New West Road property on Sunday.

POLICE

file