

ET, call Steve

LONDON: Steve Upton was so convinced that extra-terrestrials were out there that in 1996 he staked $25 at 100-1 that "alien life would be verified within a year".

This week, after a four-year wrangle, book-makers agreed to pay him $2500.

A NASA expert said there was "conclusive proof" from an asteroid found in Antarctica that Mars was once home to primitive organisms.

- DAILY MAIL

The (Melbourne) Herald - Sun.

LW

H3

2001
March 25