

They're out there ... in Mildura

LOOKS like New Mexico is no longer the favourite holiday spot for UFOs. Apparently, they've become pretty keen on Mildura.

Thanks to the anonymous Eye reader who sent in a local newspaper clipping which quoted a "police spokesperson": "At 5am ... Mildura divisional van members ... were patrolling Apex Park when their jaws dropped at the sight of a very brightly lit-up UFO hovering over the NSW side of the river. It appeared the UFO spotted them at the same time as it shot off in the direction of Gol Gol. They attempted to give chase but it had gone in the blink of an eye.

"One of the officers commented over the air: 'We've just seen a UFO,' and received the reply: 'We've just boiled the kettle, you had better come in for a cup of tea and a lie down.'"

The report said it was not the first police sighting of UFOs in the area.

It also quoted Allan Wilson, a local member of the Victorian UFO Research Society, as saying that UFOs were prone to hover over water, and retold how a farmer who saw a "blue haze" over a water tank and discovered the tank, which had been full, was completely empty.

Hey, if the police and farmers are convinced, that's good enough for us.
