

There's something out there

FOUR out of five Australians believe aliens are out there and two out of three believe they have visited Earth, according to a survey by Reader's Digest.

The magazine polled 750 Australians and found 84 per cent believe the little green men will be friendly. Three in four Australians believe there is a Government cover-up.

Sent Herab 26 June 2005

John Pakizzi Sydney Australia