

What the? *

Residents across America's southeast weren't singing Jerry Lee Lewis's 1957 hit when they called emergency and weather officials to report "great balls of fire" in the night sky. Residents in Maryland, North Carolina and Virginia reported brilliant, streaking lights followed by a thunderous sound about 9.45pm on Sunday. Weather officials had no explanation.

*MX News 31 March 2009
John Parazzi Sydney
Australia*