

'Flying Saucer Review'

"FLYING Saucer Review" is the only professionally-produced magazine on the greatest enigma of our time.

The journal is published by Flying Saucer Service Ltd., whose aims are to collect, collate and disseminate information on unidentified flying objects. Although it would appear that information on flying saucers is limited, information is now pouring in from all over the world.