

U.S. fireball is probed

504
57

The United States Air Force is investigating reports of a "fireball" streaking across the Western United States.

"It appears to have been a meteor," a spokesman said.

According to the Civil Aeronautics Administration, the "fireball" crashed near Myton, Utah.

Western Mail, 11th Oct. '57.