

INTERNATIONAL PRESS-CUTTING BUREAU
184, STRAND, LONDON, W.C.2.

Extract from
Western Mail, Cardiff

30 MAR 1906

Flying saucer fever spreads over border

3404

FLYING saucer fever, which has gripped Ann Arbor, Michigan, for about a week, has spread across the Canadian border to Ontario and west to Nevada and California.

But the hundreds of people who have reported seeing eerie, glowing lights hurtling through the night sky can't agree on colour or shape.

Meanwhile, civil defence officials were investigating a mysterious seven-foot circular indentation in the ground near Ann Arbor.