

said he did not have the Wales TUC administrative officer Mr. David Jenkins said that Mr. Gregor was a public servant and should be more responsive to the people who pay his wages.

~~1911/50 PRO~~

Mystery balloon on mountain

An "unidentified flying object" was found on the mountainside at Trevethin on Monday.

But this UFO is believed to be nothing more sinister than a weather balloon blown off course after a night of heavy storms.

Police today were trying to contact the Meteorological Office to establish ownership of the balloon, which has a steel ribbed kite attached measuring six feet by four. It was found by Mr. Clifford John Price, of Elm Close, Trevethin.