

star side, has already warned of possible industrial action.

But the unions would ensure that emergency services were kept going and no patients placed in jeopardy.

The Royal College of Nursing met yesterday to plan its pay campaign, but would not disclose any details.

UFO sighting

Two policemen on panda car patrol have reported seeing a UFO near Milton Keynes. They described it as a bright yellow lozenge-shaped object with large white lights.