

4 APR 1993

UFO fireball

^{2.27.93} STRANGE lights seen over New Zealand may have been caused by a cosmic fireball. People from as far south as the South Island town of Oamaru reported seeing a circular, bright object, variously described as ranging from red, white to blue in colour, moving fast from east to west last week. Carter Observatory scientist Graham Blow said a cosmic fireball was the most likely explanation.

.....