Secrets of the Paranormal: UFOs – Britain's Secret Files, Thursday, BBC2

GET set for the real X-Files as personal experiences of the paranormal are revealed in this six-part series.

If UFOs are the product of an overactive imagination why is the Ministry of Defence spending so much on tracing them? A veteran UFO expert investigates in the first of the series UFOs: Britain's Secret Files.

For 20 years Jenny Randles has devoted her life to a subject that has fascinated and mystified skywatchers around the world. Now a world-renowned ufologist, she traces the British Government's interest in UFOs over the last 40 years – and investigates what the men from the Ministry really know behind their heavily-closed doors.
