

off about Britain, one told Mr Brown bluntly:
"Our relationship with America is a bit too close."

BAD enough that MI5 tells us there are hundreds of terror suspects they are following, now a former Ministry of Defence chief says we are wide open to attack
by aliens – little green men, not the other sort.

Nick Pope, who ran the MoD's UFO project
from 1991 to 1994 (hmm – didn't the X-Files TV show start then? I feel a conspiracy coming on) says officials are not doing enough to probe flying object sightings.

"Frankly, we're wide open," he says.

AND finally....

Although I am still banning that C-word until

SOUTH WILLES ARGUS
(Newspaper) 13 November
2006 FRT
"MISS INFORMATION COLUMN",

I have to tell you