

never be released.

Mr Justice Mitting announced his decision in London on July 16, ruling that the serial killer of 13 women must serve a "whole life" tariff.

Truth out there?

BRITAIN'S top intelligence chiefs were advised that a number of UFO sightings remained unexplained when they discussed the phenomena in the 1950s, newly-released files reveal.

The issue was raised at an April 1957 meeting of the Joint Intelligence Committee, which prepares briefings on national security and defence for ministers and officials.
