

president of the Pennsylvania Psychiatric Society.

* * *

THE FOLLOWING OFFICERS were recently installed by the Illinois Psychiatric Society: ROY R. GRINKER, SR., M.D., president; JEROME S. BEIGLER, M.D., president-elect; ROBERT NUNN, M.D., secretary; ROBERT DE VITO, M.D., treasurer; and MICHAEL ROGERS, M.D., and RUDOLPH G. NOVICK, M.D., councilors.

* * *

MASAAKI KATO, M.D., has been appointed director of the National Institute of Mental Health in Koonodai, Ichikawa City, Chiba-Ken, Japan.

* * *

THE FOLLOWING PERSONS took office at the recent meeting of the American Psychosomatic Society: DONALD OKEN, M.D., president; DAVID T.

GRAHAM, M.D., president-elect; MYRON A. HOFER, M.D., secretary-treasurer; and ANKE A. EHRHARDT, PH.D., BERNARD T. ENGEL, PH.D., and WILLIAM F. KIELY, M.D., were elected to council positions. DR. RUSSELL M. WILDER has been appointed to complete the council term of DR. SANFORD MEYEROWITZ, who died recently.

* * *

JOHN E. MACK, M.D., professor of psychiatry at Harvard University, was awarded the Pulitzer Prize for biography for his book, A Prince of Our Disorder: The Life of T. E. Lawrence, a biography of Lawrence of Arabia with psychoanalytical insights. Mack was a member of the American Psychiatric Association's Task Force on Psychohistory.

* * *

Continued on facing page

Psychiatric News June 3, 1977

FROM
MERCK SHARP & DOHME
FOR THE TREATMENT OF CLINICALLY SIGNIFICANT

