

1
00:00:00,000 --> 00:00:03,190
Narrator: Michael Suffredini, Program Manager

2
00:00:03,210 --> 00:00:05,890
for the International Space Station and Joel

3
00:00:05,910 --> 00:00:10,070
Montalbano, Deputy Program Manager for the ISS,

4
00:00:10,090 --> 00:00:14,030
recently visited NASA's Ames Research Center.

5
00:00:14,050 --> 00:00:16,630
They were given a first-hand look at the research

6
00:00:16,650 --> 00:00:19,230
activities that contributed to the numerous science

7
00:00:19,250 --> 00:00:22,220
and technology payloads for the ISS.

8
00:00:22,240 --> 00:00:24,900
The tour included visits to labs where a variety

9
00:00:24,920 --> 00:00:27,490
of micro-gravity biology experiments

10
00:00:27,510 --> 00:00:29,010
have been developed.

11
00:00:29,030 --> 00:00:31,790
They also visited other projects, such as the Smart

12
00:00:31,810 --> 00:00:35,630
SPHERES free flyer robots, the K10 and K-REX

13
00:00:35,650 --> 00:00:40,060

rovers and several small satellite projects.

14
00:00:40,080 --> 00:00:43,390
Currently, Ames plans to launch more than 15

15
00:00:43,410 --> 00:00:46,180
science and technology demonstration payloads to 16

00:00:46,200 --> 00:00:49,380
the ISS in 2014.

17
00:00:49,400 --> 00:00:52,700
Mr. Suffredini was also a keynote speaker and 18

00:00:52,720 --> 00:00:55,360
presenter at the 2014 Ames Space Flight

19
00:00:55,380 --> 00:00:57,740
Awareness Awards ceremony.

20
00:00:57,760 --> 00:01:01,340
The Awards recognized more than 450 Ames employees

21
00:01:01,360 --> 00:01:03,800
for their exceptional performance and dedication

22
00:01:03,820 --> 00:01:07,960
in support of the ISS mission.
