NASA Glenn in particular did a really good job for my internship session, of keeping a sense of community, even

3
00:00:25,025 --> 00:00:34,001

I was thankful that I could not only work on these incredible projects and connect with these industry experts that

4
00:00:34,001 --> 00:00:40,007

And that I was also being paid for my time. I don't think I could have asked for a better work environment than this that they were able to create for me as my first internship experience.

5
00:00:40,007 --> 00:00:43,010

6
00:00:44,011 --> 00:00:53,020

I'm very grateful that NASA was one of the few institutions that implemented remote internships. Although I'm not

7
00:00:53,020 --> 00:00:59,026

because challenges are what NASA does. But picking up those skills, learning from others, learning those tech

8
00:00:59,026 --> 00:01:05,032

learning those communicative skills, is very beneficial to being a successful engineer.

00:01:05,666 --> 00:01:12,005

And I think just having an internship at NASA and working with NASA is just such a privilege because you're working
