00:00:00,000 --> 00:00:12,570
music

2
00:00:12,590 --> 00:00:13,910
child: Cool!

3
00:00:13,930 --> 00:00:17,200
Narrator: Eats, treats, and astronaut greets.

4
00:00:17,220 --> 00:00:22,460
NASA welcomed the public to the Goddard Space Flight Center for their spring open house.

5
00:00:22,480 --> 00:00:27,980
"Explore@NASA Goddard" was the theme for today's event,

6
00:00:28,000 --> 00:00:32,080
the public had unique access to explore, learn,

7
00:00:32,100 --> 00:00:38,150
and enjoy the energetic atmosphere of the Space Agency's largest research facility.

8
00:00:38,170 --> 00:00:41,360
Scientists talked about our planet and brought the wonders of the universe

9
00:00:41,380 --> 00:00:44,020
down to Earth for all to see.

10
00:00:44,040 --> 00:00:47,930
While engineers discussed new missions and their future discoveries.

11
00:00:47,950 --> 00:00:52,890
At the Mad Science tent, visitors were amazed by incredible chemistry.

12
00:00:52,910 --> 00:00:55,150
Others performed their own moonwalk.

13
00:00:55,170 --> 00:00:59,050

Even Darth Vader stopped by looking for some new recruits.

14
00:00:59,070 --> 00:01:01,490
Each location was a technological treasure trove

15
00:01:01,510 --> 00:01:06,450
as guest toured many of the seldom seen facilities.

16
00:01:06,470 --> 00:01:09,600
Thousands of visitors toured the solar system and beyond,
