

A hand is holding a white rectangular card in a dark, cluttered environment. The card has the text "APOLLO 8 HOME MOVIES" written on it in three lines. The background is dark and filled with various items, including what appears to be a white bag or container on the left, some white cables, and a metallic structure on the right. The lighting is dim, with some highlights on the metallic surfaces and the card.

in the vastness of space.
