

The background of the image is a night sky filled with numerous stars of varying brightness and colors, including white, yellow, and blue. The stars are scattered across the upper two-thirds of the frame. Below the sky, a dark silhouette of a forest or treeline stretches across the horizon. The overall scene is dark and atmospheric, typical of a clear night sky.

TONIGHT'S SKY

April 2011