>> Well, in case you don't have any questions, then quickly stop

4 00:00:13,200 --> 00:00:17,870 when you're up the stairs for whatever questions we have 5 00:00:17,870 --> 00:00:20,510 for you and then off you go.

>> They say [inaudible] your ticket.

9
00:00:55,670 --> 00:00:57,510
>> Blame it on me.

[ Background Noise ]

11
00:01:11,950 --> 00:01:26,380
[ Background Talk ]

12
00:01:26,380 --> 00:01:27,510
>> Good luck, guys.

13

00:01:27,510 --> 00:01:31,890

[ Background Noise ]

14

00:01:31,890 --> 00:01:36,260

[ Background Talk ]

15

00:01:36,260 --> 00:01:37,950

>> Is everybody ready?

16

00:01:40,860 --> 00:01:41,430

>> Yes.

17

00:01:41,430 --> 00:01:45,650

>> Got several questions for you.

18

00:01:45,650 --> 00:01:48,650

Yuri, what's your estimation on how the crew did yesterday

19

00:01:48,650 --> 00:01:50,870 and what are your expectations for today?

20

00:01:50,870 --> 00:01:54,830

>> Yuri: Well, we had a real solid effort yesterday.

21

00:01:54,830 --> 00:01:59,140

It was real good, and I'm hoping for the same today.

22

00:01:59,140 --> 00:02:00,520

Ultimately, we're looking forward

23

00:02:00,520 --> 00:02:02,500

to getting a good grade today.

24

00:02:02,500 --> 00:02:03,580

Thank you.

25

00:02:03,580 --> 00:02:05,130

Next question.

26

00:02:06,670 --> 00:02:11,230

>> What are you looking forward the most up there [inaudible]?

27

00:02:11,230 --> 00:02:14,300

What is the experience you're looking for?

28

00:02:15,440 --> 00:02:16,840

>> Is that question for me tonight?

29

00:02:16,840 --> 00:02:20,240

I think definitely working with the crewmates that we have here

30

00:02:20,240 --> 00:02:22,260 and the ones that will be up there already.

31

00:02:22,260 --> 00:02:25,940

They're already started into an aggressive science program,

32

00:02:25,940 --> 00:02:29,470 and then we have multiple vehicles that will be up there 33

00:02:29,470 --> 00:02:32,710

when we're there and possibly some, a couple EVA's.

34

00:02:32,710 --> 00:02:36,600

So it's going to be a very busy increment, but, of course, 35

00:02:36,600 --> 00:02:38,470

there's got to be time to look at the [inaudible].

36

00:02:38,470 --> 00:02:42,330

That's going to be one of the best things.

37

00:02:42,330 --> 00:02:45,030

>> Can you explain the Soyuz [inaudible]?

38

00:02:46,090 --> 00:02:47,590

>> Sure. It's an all-day event,

39

00:02:47,590 --> 00:02:50,350 and it sort of is a representation

40

00:02:50,350 --> 00:02:52,230 of all the activities that we will be doing 41

00:02:52,230 --> 00:02:56,340

in the Soyuz starting from the launch start all the way

42

00:02:56,340 --> 00:02:59,490

through insertion, the orbit burns, and the rendezvous to get 43

00:02:59,490 --> 00:03:01,420 to the space station, and then after lunch,

44

00:03:01,420 --> 00:03:08,020

we'll be doing an undocking and a landing.

45

00:03:08,020 --> 00:03:12,530

>> So it's been, it's going to be less than a month

46

00:03:12,530 --> 00:03:17,440

until launch, and I'm looking forward to going up into space

47

00:03:17,440 --> 00:03:21,040

with these two veteran astronauts/cosmonauts

48

00:03:21,040 --> 00:03:27,800

in about less than a month.

49

00:03:27,800 --> 00:03:29,950

>> Yuri, what's the language of preference in your crew?

50

00:03:29,950 --> 00:03:32,520

Can your crew members speak Russian?

51

00:03:32,520 --> 00:03:35,760

>> Yuri: Both Aki and Sunny speak Russian very well, 52

00:03:35,760 --> 00:03:38,370

and actually Russian's prime language

53

00:03:38,370 --> 00:03:41,580

for Soyuz operations were English is the main language

54

00:03:41,580 --> 00:03:42,450

for station.

55

00:03:42,450 --> 00:03:44,130

So we can speak multiple languages,

56

00:03:44,130 --> 00:03:46,580 and we're equally proficient in all of them.

57

00:03:46,580 --> 00:03:47,880

So you're a bunch of [inaudible].

58

00:03:47,880 --> 00:03:51,360

You can say that.

59

00:03:51,360 --> 00:03:54,270

>> During the four and a half months, a very short duration,

60

00:03:54,270 --> 00:03:56,570

but we have a lot to do.

61

00:03:56,570 --> 00:04:02,450

We have, of course, science experiments and also EVA

62

00:04:02,450 --> 00:04:07,090 and also waiting for a lot of [inaudible] ships,

63

00:04:07,090 --> 00:04:10,380

but I am looking forward to all of those activities
