

1
00:00:05,704 --> 00:00:08,607
>> And the hatches are open between the two crews.

2
00:00:08,607 --> 00:00:11,444
Official time 11:34
PM central time.

3
00:00:11,444 --> 00:00:15,514
12:34 AM Eastern time.

4
00:00:15,514 --> 00:00:24,590
[ Laughter and speaking in foreign language ]

5
00:00:45,077 --> 00:00:47,546
>> Now let's move to the SM Module.

6
00:00:47,546 --> 00:00:56,622
[ Speaking in foreign language ]

7
00:01:01,227 --> 00:01:04,797 >> [inaudible] to SM see you from SM.

8
00:01:04,797 --> 00:01:07,933
>> Hi guys this is Speta [assumed spelling].

9
00:01:07,933 --> 00:01:13,205
I'm very happy to see you in your new space home.

10
00:01:13,205 --> 00:01:17,343
It's a pity we're not able to see your smiles

11
00:01:17,343 --> 00:01:21,013

which are hid behind the masks.

12

00:01:21,013 --> 00:01:24,517

All of you had a great launch, very beautiful.

13

00:01:24,517 --> 00:01:27,253

Well, our thoughts and feelings are with you,

14

00:01:27,253 --> 00:01:29,321

we love you very much.

15

00:01:30,523 --> 00:01:39,431

Dear crew 44 are everybody sleeping at Baikonur?

16

00:01:40,799 --> 00:01:45,004

On behalf of the Ryazanskiy family we'd

17

00:01:45,004 --> 00:01:48,040 like to greet you on the space station.

18

00:01:49,675 --> 00:01:53,979

We're happy that you had a normal docking

19

00:01:53,979 --> 00:02:00,019

and are really impressed by our stay at Baikonur.

20

00:02:00,019 --> 00:02:07,693

We are overwhelmed and in the first place we are proud of you

21

00:02:07,693 --> 00:02:11,430

and we're happy that your dream

22

00:02:11,430 --> 00:02:14,266

of thirty years is now fulfilled.

23

00:02:14,266 --> 00:02:15,100

Thanks a lot.

24

00:02:15,100 --> 00:02:22,074

Did you get to see the launch?

25

00:02:23,442 --> 00:02:28,380

I never described my feelings.

26

00:02:28,380 --> 00:02:34,954

I am speechless as regards of the launch

27

00:02:34,954 --> 00:02:38,123 of your rocket yesterday.

28

00:02:38,123 --> 00:02:40,059

So that's our usual words, wow!

29

00:02:40,059 --> 00:02:41,327

Thank you guys.

30

00:02:41,327 --> 00:02:43,796

Well frankly speaking,
I still find it hard

31

00:02:43,796 --> 00:02:45,197

to believe that you're up there.

32

00:02:45,197 --> 00:02:50,436

Daddy is not believing what's going on himself.

33

00:02:50,436 --> 00:02:56,308

>> Hi Mike I can't believe you're actually there

34

00:02:56,308 --> 00:02:59,044 and getting to fulfill your dream.

35

00:02:59,044 --> 00:03:07,219
I see that big smile on your face and I'm sure it's going 36

00:03:07,219 --> 00:03:10,422 to be there for the next six months.

37

00:03:10,422 --> 00:03:12,758
The launch was incredible.

38

00:03:12,758 --> 00:03:21,200
We are so proud of you and we love you so much.

39

00:03:21,200 --> 00:03:27,072
The next six months
we're going to miss you.

40

00:03:27,072 --> 00:03:28,474
>> Thanks sweetie.

41

00:03:28,474 --> 00:03:35,748
It's great to talk to you, it's great to hear your voice

42

00:03:35,748 --> 00:03:41,086 and hello to everybody there as well and everybody all

43

00:03:41,086 --> 00:03:46,492 over the world that's watching this event for us back

44

00:03:46,492 --> 00:03:50,529 at [inaudible] and back in Houston and the University

45

00:03:50,529 --> 00:03:53,766
of Illinois as well and Stanford.

46

00:03:53,766 --> 00:03:55,567
So thanks it's great to hear you.

47

00:03:55,567 --> 00:03:58,170
>> Hi Mike.

48

00:03:58,170 --> 00:04:02,908
The launch was a heart stopping experience but I'm

49

00:04:02,908 --> 00:04:07,313
so glad you're safe and sound.

50

00:04:07,313 --> 00:04:12,251
>> Well it was a pretty good ride mom.

51

00:04:12,251 --> 00:04:20,926
And it was a lot of fun, believe me.

52

00:04:20,926 --> 00:04:23,862
>> I thought you were having a good time

53

00:04:23,862 --> 00:04:27,966 and probably the best adrenalin rush you've ever had.
